Hearing Aid Offering from HearingPlanet, Inc.

HearingPlanet knows that buying hearing aids is a big financial investment, and that it's critical that the money spent will improve that person's quality of life. To make sure our customers achieve the most success with their hearing aid fitting, HearingPlanet has put the following safeguards in place that have given our 40,000 customers peace of mind the past 12 years.

A Personal Hearing Consultant

When you contact HearingPlanet, you'll speak to the same person who will safely guide you through the process of buying hearing aids. No one else offers this level of customer service!

Over 1,200 local Hearing Professionals

HearingPlanet has contracted with hearing professionals in your area for all hearing testing and hearing aid fitting services. These professionals have a proven track record of customer service and expertise, and have been screened and credentialed for you.

Hearing Aid Selection

HearingPlanet offers you a choice of the world's most advanced hearing aids like Phonak, Siemens, ReSound, Unitron, and others. We also specialize in Bluetooth and other wireless hearing aid accessories.

45-Day No-Risk Evaluation Period

It's simple. Try the hearing aids recommended by our local professional and if they don't help improve your quality of life within 45-days, return them for a full refund of your purchase price.

As a member of Advanced Affinity Services, you are entitled to receive the following discounts for hearing aids depending on your hearing loss, lifestyle, and budget.

- The Unitron Quantum 12 - $1,899 each. Unitron is part of the Sonova family of hearing aids and is one of the technology leaders in the industry. The Quantum 12 is a 12-channel digital hearing aid that fits a wide range of hearing loss and lifestyles. Included in the purchase with these hearing aids at no-charge is the Udirect Bluetooth accessory and Smart Control remote giving you the utmost ability to stay connected with your friends and loved ones. This is a savings of $800.00 and is perhaps the best value available for this technology level.
- $500 off any pair of hearing aids recommended – Select from any manufacturer and any technology level, and take $500 off the price published on our website at www.hearingplanet.com. In addition, you will receive 3 cartons of hearing aid batteries and a Dry and Store dehumidifier at no-charge with your order (a $200 value).
- 50% discount off wireless accessories – Add any wireless accessory to communicate with your hearing aids (Bluetooth, remote control, or TV streamer) and receive a 50% discount off our retail price of $200-$600, depending on the accessory.
- 50% discount off extended warranties – The normal price of adding an additional year of warranty (depending on manufacturer) can range from $200 - $300 per hearing aid. By mentioning your discount card, you can add an extra year of coverage on most models we sell for 50% off. Please call for details and availability.
